

Saturday School + Boolean Girl™ Stem Clubhouses

Join the Boolean Girl at Saturday School for an innovative, hands-on coding and engineering program. Learn to code in a fun, collaborative environment!

This program is for Montgomery County Public School's students and offered as 2-hours of coding for children in grades 3 to 8. Offered as a 5-week course.

2026 CODING SESSIONS SATURDAYS / 9:00 - 11:00 AM

Courses are available on the following Saturdays:

Session 1 – September 26; October 3, 10, 24; November 7

Session 2 – November 14, 21; December 5, 12, 19

Parent Workshops: November 7

CENTERS Springbrook HS (Grades 3-5)

Learn to code and build games in Scratch. All skill levels are welcome!

Melissa Nelson • (240) 755-8209 • Melissa_L_Nelson@mcpsmd.org

Paint Branch HS (Grades 5-8)

Learn how to use a microprocessor that moves, lights up and more!

Troy Horsley • (301) 287-8980 • Troy_A_Horsley@mcpsmd.org

Questions? Email info@booleangirl.org | booleangirl.org

TO REGISTER Please go to our website saturdayschool.org.

COST Scholarships Only. Scholarships were made possible through Montgomery County Community Foundation. Availability is limited to 15 students per session at each location.

STEM 4 GIRLS!
Register Today!

